

Position: Chief Finance Officer (CFO)

The CFO oversees financial and accounting functions across the entire company, playing a central role in finance-related leadership and fundraising for the company. Currently, with the absence of a CFO, the role involves not only managerial tasks but also the formulation of the overall direction and financial strategy for the entire company.

Responsibilities:

- Management of financial and accounting tasks
- Formulation of finance strategy, including capital policy
- Fundraising
- Communication with investors
- Formulation of business development strategy, including M&A

Required Skills:

- Experience in accounting/finance tasks in a business company (welcome to those from consulting firms or auditing firms)
- Ability to accurately grasp the company's financial status from financial statements such as P&L, BS, and cash flow statements, foresee the future, and respond quickly to risk management
- Capability to handle a wide range of support tasks as a back-office department
- Ability to proactively propose financial solutions to business leaders and investors
- Positive and optimistic attitude

Preferred Skills:

- Qualifications such as FASS (Financial Accounting Skill Standards), Professional CFO, MBA (Master of Business Administration)
- English proficiency for communication
- Experience in startups

Employment Type:

Full-time

Recruitment Criteria:

While there is no age limit, candidates under 35 are preferred to encourage long-term career development.

Salary:

Negotiable

Work Location:

Tokyo Office / Locations designated by the company, including employees' homes and other specified places.

Working Hours:

Flexible working hours

Days Off:

Regular days off: Every Saturday and Sunday, National holidays
Holidays: Summer vacation / Year-end and New Year holidays *Details determined separately based on the annual calendar. Annual paid leave

Report Line:

Reports to the CEO (Chief Executive Officer)

About SORA Technology Corporation:

SORA Technology aims to bring about a transformation in people's lives from the "sky (SORA)" by creating a new social infrastructure centered around drones and air mobility. With a global perspective, the company aims to implement pioneering solutions to urgent social issues in developing countries, such as infectious diseases like malaria and last-mile delivery. Learn more at SORA Technology's website. Additionally, leveraging operational and technical knowledge gained in developing countries, SORA Technology is also committed to reverse innovation in advanced countries, realizing a sustainable society that can withstand disasters and epidemics using "sky (SORA)" and ensuring the safe management and integration of "sky (SORA)" worldwide.